The Energy & Manufacturing Mini-Grant Program

EMA offers mini-grants for up to $10,000 to support manufacturers who engage in a technical assistance project that will assist them to: 1) engage with the energy supply chain and/or 2) implement energy cost-reduction strategies. These are reimbursement grants awarded after the project is completed to help offset some of the investment cost by the company.

Fast Facts

- Up to $10,000 toward a technical assistance project
- Reimbursement grant pays 50% of eligible costs
- Projects can help a manufacturer be more energy efficient or help a manufacturer be more competitive selling products in an energy supply chain
- Application is simple to complete, and approval takes about 1 week

Who is Eligible?

- Manufacturing companies
- Location in one of 156 counties in PA, OH, WV, MD, NY
- Less than 500 employees at the location where the project occurs
- First time recipients (only one E&M mini-grant per company)

10 Most Common EMA Mini-grant Projects

- Energy Efficiency
- Sales Strategy
- Website Development
- ISO/Lean/Quality
- Electrical or HVAC Services
- Product Development
- CMMC/ITAR/Compliance
- Market Research
- Lead Generation
- ERP Optimization